An introduction to our services

What can Andrew & Andrew do for you?

Who are Andrew & Andrew?

We are a law firm that has solved people's needs for over 50 years. We specialise in providing personal legal advice for every stage of life.

Perhaps you are buying a home or considering making a will, or have a personal crisis you need professional help with? We have built our expertise in these areas rather than in advising big businesses. We will provide the professional legal advice you need, whatever your circumstances.

Here to make your life easier

Our friendly staff are experienced in dealing with personal matters - for example if you have suffered a personal injury or an accident, whether at work, on the roads, or a slip or trip. We offer sound advice on other personal matters such as relationship or housing problems. We want you to feel comfortable talking to us, and we have private interview rooms so we can meet you in confidence.

We have also invested in the latest computer systems. This helps us provide an efficient service and makes it easier for us to keep you informed, every step of the way - we can do this by letter, email or text, however you prefer. For your convenience, we are situated close to the motorway junction and have a large car park, as well as step-free access to every floor of our offices.
